3. Information about the school's policies for making provision for pupils with SEN whether or not pupils have EHC plans, including:

a. How the school evaluates the effectiveness of its provision for such pupils?

- We review our policy and practice annually.
- We consult with parents of children and young people with SEN through regular formal and informal meetings.
- We consult with children regularly and encourage them to be fully involved in their provision.
- We use Provision Maps for all our children with SEN.
- We monitor, track and review individual progress termly.

b. The school's arrangements for assessing and reviewing the progress of pupils with SEN:

- We identify as early as possible, firstly by carrying out pre-school visits and close communication with Foundation Stage staff.
- Our assessments are ongoing and may involve external professionals
- We track every child individually.
- We review progress and achievement termly.
- We update our Provision Map for individual children termly.
- The progress of children with SALT (Speech and Language Therapy) is assessed and reviewed regularly throughout the year
- A cycle of consultation meeting, set targets, review targets take place for children with EP (Educational Psychologist) involvement
- For children with statements or an EHC (Education, Health and Care) Plan, an annual review takes place once a year.
- Transition meetings involving pupil, parents, current staff and future staff will take place and will include dialogue and visits
- When assessing SEN children, consideration is given to their needs e.g. a reader, a scribe, extra time or rest break may be necessary. Generally whatever support is provided in the classroom is provided as far as is permitted during tests

SEND Information Report – Lostock Hall Primary School – Updated June 2019

- Pupil Progress meetings take place three times a year with the SLT.
- Initial concerns are discussed with the SENCo, followed by meeting with parents, followed by referrals to outside agencies if appropriate or placement on appropriate intervention programmes.

c. The school's approach to teaching pupils with SEN:

- We include children with SEN in all aspects of school life.
- We value everyone equally.
- We believe every teacher is a teacher of SEN.
- We believe all children should realise their full potential.
- Provision for children with SEN is a matter for the school as a whole.
- Children with SEN will receive support that is additional to or different from the provision made for other children.
- We aim to identify children with particular needs on admission, throughout the Foundation Stage and as they move through the school.
- Assessment of children may include observation of children's social skills and learning experiences in all curriculum areas, teacher assessment and use of a number of tests which will enable peer group comparisons to be made.
- We accept that gifted children often require additional resourcing to extend and fully develop their potential and we endeavour to respond to these particular needs.

d. How the school adapts the curriculum and learning environment:

- We believe that quality first teaching and effective differentiation underpins all SEN provision.
- We provide support that is additional to and different from the differentiated curriculum for some children in order to meet their special needs.
- We make reasonable adjustments to our curriculum and learning environment to meet the needs of individual children.
- School acts upon advice from all external agencies

e. Additional support for learning that is available for pupils with SEN:

- We provide in class support, small group provision, one to one support and withdrawal for children with SEN
- We have 6 Teaching Assistants to support children with SEN when needed. Most are trained to deliver a number of intervention programmes throughout the school, most work on a 1:1 basis with children with SEN.
- We consult with external professionals and act upon advice provided, such as Speech and Language Service, CAMHS, CEAT, OT, physiotherapy, Social Services

f. Activities that are available for pupils with SEN in addition to those available in accordance with the curriculum:

- We provide bespoke interventions for individual children such as Toe by Toe, Precision Teaching, Make and Break, Power of Two, FFT Wave 3, Motor Skills United.
- We make reasonable adjustments in all aspects of school life to accommodate the needs of individuals.
- All children are involved in all aspects of school life.
- We follow the SEN Code of Practice.
- For children with a specific learning difficulty, we follow advice, recommendations and targets suggested by external agencies.
